

The High Weald Academy

A Brook Learning Trust Academy

23 October 2018

Dear Families,

We are about to launch our new academy newsletter and are keen to give it a title. The Hayesbrook School, (also, part of the Brook Learning Trust), has named their newsletter 'The Record' which relates to the original newsletter sent to families of Hayesbrook's predecessor school 'Sussex Road Boys School' in the early 1900's. This title was given to acknowledge the academies rooted history in serving the Tonbridge Community.

It would be great for the High Weald Academy newsletter to also have a title that reflects the academies history and ethos.

We are therefore running a competition over half term for students and families to suggest an appropriate name for our newsletter. The winning title will be announced in the first whole school assembly after half term and a prize will be awarded! You can then expect to receive the first new edition.

Please email suggestions to enq@highwealdacademy.kent.sch.uk. We look forward to receiving them.
