Complaints and Appeals Procedure

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, High Weald Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by • raising the concern or complaint in person, by telephone or in writing to the Head of Centre.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to • Nigel Jones. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within • 10 working days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must • A complaint may be submitted in person, in writing or by completing an online complaint form.

How a formal complaint is investigated

• Complaint heard by staff member (who is not involved with the complaint)

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within • 10 working days.

Appeals

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must • Write a formal complaint in writing to the Complaints Co-ordinator.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within • 7 days.

The appeal will be referred to • Complaints Appeal Panel.

It will be the responsibility of • The Chair of the Complaints Panel to inform the appellant of the final conclusion.
